SHOOT THE HILLS RULES AND POLICIES AGREEMENT TO PARTICIPATE

In order to be eligible to participation in the Shoot the Hills Photo Competition, the photographer must agree to and abide by all the contest rules and policies as stated in the official Shoot the Hills Photo Competition Rules and Policies.

By signing below, you have agreed to abide by the Rules and Policies governing the Shoot the Hills Photo Competition.

Shoot the Hills Photography Use Disclaimer:

All images entered into the Shoot the Hills Photography Competition remain the property of each photographer, however, the winning images may be published or printed and used by officials of Friends of the Hocking Hills State Park, Shoot the Hills Photography Competition, Hocking Hills State Park, Ohio State Parks, Hocking Hills Tourism Association, Time Warner Cable, Long Point Media, and/or others that may be later named for promotional purposes, editorial or education usage, advertising of the region, and /or the production of merchandise items relating to projects of the Friends of the Hocking Hills State Park. No additional compensation (other than the original prize) will be made to photographers, and a photographer's eligibility in the completion is contingent upon this agreement. It is understood that these above-named entities and/or individuals will make diligent efforts to include proper photo credit to the photographer for each usage. However, in the event of an erroneous oversight on misprint, the above-named entities and/or individuals will not be held liable for real or perceived "damages," but a correction or retraction may be published to correct any misprinting.
